INDEPENDENTS 24 TRIANGLES 14

LOCALS TOO FAST FOR VISITING QUINTETTE

The coming of the Saginaw Triangles to play the local Independents was a long looked for event. The locals were defeated by the Triangles upon their first visit by two points and Grayling intended to even the game at this time. Thompson was absent at the first game and our team had lost heart before the game began, so as may be expected, they lost a game that they should have won.

However they more than got even in the game last Saturday night. Grayling had a crippled lineup, with Milnes, center out on account of illness, and Johnson forward, out because of blood poisoning in one of his hands. Reynolds played center; Charlefour and Libke, forwards; and Morrow and Thompson, as guards, composed the quintette for Grayling and played the whole game without substitution.

The game had hardly started before it was plainly evident to the visitors that they had the biggest job on their hands that they had encountered this season. The ball was in Grayling's territory most of the time. In spite of this the Triangles managed to slip over a pair of baskets before Grayling scored. Soon after, however the team work and passing of the Independents began to show its effectiveness and scores began to pile up. Every man on Grayling's lineup played a star game and to their great credit and satisfaction to the home people, soon had the visiting quintette humbled and playing on the defensive.

On the visiting team was Waldegar Roeser, a former Grayling boy and a member of our famous high school teams of previous years. He played guard for the Triangles and played a masterful game but he and his team mates were up before a most worthy opponent and had to submit to a decisive defeat. On a couple of occasions Roeser locked horns with his former team mate, Grant Thompson.

ROY MILNES WITHDRAWS NOMINATION FOR CLERK.
Grayling, Mich. March 15, 1922.
Mr. O. P. Schumann.
Editor, Crawford Avalanche.
Dear Mr. Schumann: It appears there is some misunderstanding regarding my nomination for the office of Township Clerk at the Republican Caucus, as same was made without my knowledge and consent. Possibly the party who placed my name in nomination may have understood that I had consented to such an arrangement, but I assure you such was not the case.

As I have no desire whatever to have my name on the ballot as a candidate, taking the means of notifying the public. Thanking you for this courtesy, I am Yours very truly,
R. O. Milnes.

AN EXPLOSION OF PEDIGREE TRUTH.

The Senior credits were mailed to the parents this week. This will show the parents how the students stand.

A new supply of reference will adorn the shelves of the library very soon.

Burroughs Adding Machine Co. has loaned an adding machine to the school for a period of six weeks. The students hope it will remain after the time is up.

The high grade Civics class enjoyed a trip through the capital of Washington, studying the different buildings in regards to architecture etc. This was done by means of photography.

Mr. B. E. Smith gave a short lecture to a number of the faculty and parents of the pupils Monday evening on the advantage of teaching by observation. Many pupils will remember things better by observation than by verbal method.

The tardy marks in the High School are this third less this month showing a slow improvement. Let's make a "big" improvement next month.

We have three new pupils in the High School, Russell and Ruth Johnson of East Jordan and Elmer Fenton. Two pupils have left, Edith Nelson and Edson Bates.

Who were the Amazons? Watch for further information.

An Orthography test was given in the 7th A class and it resulted in 16 A's out of 25 in the class.

Coach Morrow's Hoboes invaded the shore-line and carried away two more victories, the girls team losing both games. The Grayling teams played Osceola first. The girls lost a closely contested game by a score of 17 to 15.

Boys won by a score of 31-19. The Osceola team outweighed the Hoboes by a big margin, but the Hoboes outplayed them in team work and were far superior to them in basket tossing. The score at the end of the first half was 20-8 favoring the Hoboes. The second half the Osceolas were unable to penetrate the defense of the Hoboes. They only scored 3 field baskets and those from near the center of the floor. The other points were made by free-throws. Considerable roughness was used during the game.

The next night the two teams played Tawas City. The girls losing by a score of 22-11. The boys winning by a score of 42 to 11. First half in boys game ended in a score of 15-8 in favor of the Hoboes. Tawas City made a good showing in the first half but when the second half started they were unable to bring the ball past the center of the floor. They made only three points, and those from free throws. The Hoboes showed team work and had a good eye for the baskets scoring 27 points during the last half.

A signet ring containing three initials has been found. It is in the Fifth grade room, and owner may have same by calling, and describing it. Some money has also been found.

There were 23 cases of tardiness for February, making a total of 52 cases for the year to date in the 8th grade. This is pretty bad and something should be done about it.

Stimulant.
Miss Johnson in Physiology. "What is the gastric juice?"
Lloyd Simpson—"The gastric juice is a watery fluid."
Miss Estabrook: "What is the Latin race?"
Alvina Larson: "It's a race between a Latin pony and the teacher's goat."

English teacher: "What is the greatest thing in life?"
Math. Student: "An Algebra book with answers."
Miss Fuller: "I thought you would keep a secret?"
Miss Woodward: "Well, I kept it for a week. Do you think I am a storage plant?"

Miss Fuller in Physics class: "Now that you have heard of the intentions that Mr. Edison is now working on, you can tell me what great problem is involved in an apparatus for communicating with the dead."
Archie Cripps: "Getting wire which will resist heat."

WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAINS GOODFELLOWSHIP CLUB.
The home of Mrs. Robert Roblin was attractively decorated in St. Patrick's green on Monday evening the occasion being a St. Patrick's party given by the Woman's club in honor of the Goodfellowship club. The following musical program, every number of which was keenly enjoyed, was given:
Ladies Quartette, Barcarolle—Tales of Hoffman.
Solo—Mrs. Custer.
Piano solo—Miss Thompson.
Review of Opera "Tosca" (Puccini) with violoncello accompaniment—Miss Bellows.
Solo—Serenade from Schubert—Mrs. Milnes and Mrs. Jarmin.
Solo—Mrs. Custer.
Ladies Quartette, Spanish Waltz song, Carmena.
Violin Selections—Mr. Anstett, accompanist—Mrs. Anstett.

Following the program a social hour was enjoyed after which dainty refreshments were served by the committee. The Woman's club are royal entertainers and the guests were delighted with the manner in which they were entertained.

If you don't love your job don't worry about it a single minute. Some other fellow will soon have it—Sheldon.

THE VILLAGE ELECTS OFFICERS

MRS. KRAUS, NOMINEE FOR TRUSTEE DEFEATED BY M. A. ATKINSON.

An unusually large vote was registered last Monday in the village election. With but one ticket in the field the average voter considers it a waste of time to go to the polls on election day. The regular ticket as nominated at the village caucus was elected except Mrs. Daisy Kraus, for trustee, who was defeated by Marshall A. Atkinson, who ran on slips.

The total number of votes cast was 125, of which Mrs. Kraus received 47 and Mr. Atkinson 62. The remainder of the ticket was elected and is as follows:

President—Dr. Charles A. Canfield.
Clerk—Chris Jensen.
Treasurer—Holger Hanson.
Assessor—Walter Jorgenson.
Trustees—Jos. C. Burton, Mrs. Eva Reagan and Marshall A. Atkinson.

After the regular musical program there will be a St. Patrick dance at the same place. A charge of 75c per couple will be made for the dance. To this also a cordial invitation is extended to attend.

GRAYLING TO HAVE AUTOMOBILE CLUB.

Next Meeting Tuesday, March 21.

A meeting was held in the Board of Trade rooms Tuesday night for the purpose of considering the idea of organizing a local automobile club. There was a good attendance present and many good reasons for having such an organization were suggested.

A temporary organization was formed with George Burke, president, and Tony Nelson, secretary. Copies of by laws of other similar clubs have been requested and it is expected that these will be here in a few days.

A meeting has been called for Tuesday evening, March 21, at the Board of Trade rooms, when it is hoped that every automobile owner in the county will be on hand. Come and bring your neighbors.

Deadlock Broken.
We are happy to say that we are moving forward.
Wednesday I had the pleasure of seeing a splendid registered Holstein bull calf arrive from Mt. Pleasant for Andrew Mortenson.
Saturday, one for George Annis, from Saginaw, a beauty, too. Its sire cost $3000 when a calf.
A. E. Felling, well appreciating the value of improved stock, has purchased the Adam Gierke bull calf, which helps just as it shipped in.
These farmers have certainly made a long step in the right direction. Their free subscription to Hoard's Dairyman will begin at once.
Who will be next?

Bargains.
The farmer who is prompt and takes that two-year old bred Holstein heifer, tested for tuberculosis, for $100 certainly gets a bargain.
So do those who take that October heifer at $40, and that September bull at $40. Both registered—purebreds out of herd tested for tuberculosis.
Borrow the money and buy them.

More Good News This Morning.
Have just received word from Vassar of nine bull bargains that can be

Will Hays Is "Delivered" to the Movies

At a "Good-By-Bill" party given at the National Press club, Washington, Postmaster General Will Hays was "delivered" to the movies by Avery Marks, former president of the club, dressed as a postman, to Theodore Tiller, another past president, dressed as William S. Hart. Tiller is here shown signing for the "package," which was guarded by a squad of picked United States marines.

Moving a Full Grown Orange Orchard

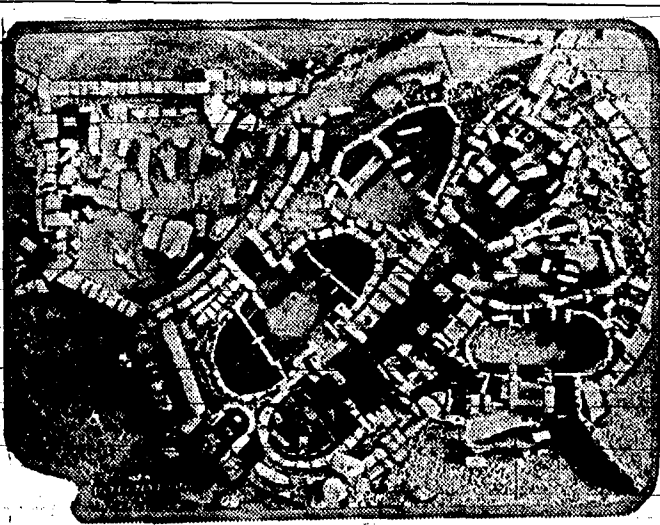

In southern California it has been demonstrated recently that full-grown orange trees can be moved long distances without doing them any injury. The photograph shows the removal of an orange orchard by trucks.

Voliva Says the World Is Flat

Wilbur Glenn Voliva, leader of the religious sect with headquarters at Zion City, Ill., says the earth is flat and that shortly he will prove it by taking a ship and sailing around the outer crust of the earth. Voliva proposes to captain a ship called the "Zion" and will start on a point at the sixty-fifth meridian and keep going to the starting point. He says the earth is flat as a pancake and the point we call the North Pole is the center of the earth and there is no South Pole, and that the sixty-fifth meridian is near the rim of the earth. The photograph shows Voliva (seated) explaining the map to his personal attendant in his office at Zion City.

Excavations of great historical value are now being carried on at Malta under the direction of Prof. T. Zammit, C. M. C., M. D., curator of the Malta Museum. The photograph shows Hagiar Kim, an extensive megalithic ruin of prehistoric temples to the west of the village Crendi.

ODDS AND ENDS

Pictures printed in dots on the grille system, are the latest innovation for assisting the blind. The average consumption of meat foods by Americans in the last five years has been 167 pounds a person. Japan occupies a prominent place among the countries of the world in the possession of mineral springs rich in radium emanations. They are found exclusively in granite regions. An eminent pomologist says that the orange was originally a pear-shaped fruit about the size of the common wild cherry. Its evolution is believed to be due to 1,200 years of cultivation. After spending five days without food or water on a reef off the Bahama islands, 12 men aboard a stranded motorboat were rescued by hydroplane and taken to Miami, Fla. Salted beds covering an area of forty square miles exist in Nova Scotia. One bed alone is said to be 900 feet wide and eighty feet deep.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

LEGION'S GENUINE 'CAVE MAN'

Parlee Gross, Buckeye Soldier, Specializes on Underground Explorations—Says "It's the Life."

Remarkably few newly married couples ever think of settling down in a little cave in the Ozark mountains. And yet Parlee C. Gross of McComb, O., says that caves are much warmer than apartments and farmhouses. They are also much cheaper. When Gross, who is a magazine writer connected with the

See America-First movement, returned to McComb from an exploration of the celebrated Ha Ha Tonka region in the Ozarks, he didn't understand why his American Legion post hadn't picked out a nice ripe cave for its quarters. He said cave life was the only life. He has become not only a cave admirer, but a cave connoisseur as well, and in appreciation of his exploration achievements, officials have named an interesting geological formation which he discovered "Gross's Giant Gnome."

The American Legion at McComb is proud of its genuine "cave man"—particularly proud of the fact that he has been selected as one of the members of a party to penetrate the unknown regions of Wyandotte Cave of Indiana and the Great Onyx Cave of Kentucky.

DENVER LEGION BOOSTS HER

Miss Edith Adams, Beautiful Actress, as Genuine as the Centennial State's Mountains.

Members of the American Legion in Denver testify that all the ex-soldier talent this side of the Rockies does not compare with a good-looking girl, when it comes to putting on a show. They are "genuinely" coming to this conclusion—being some few years behind Broadway managers, who discovered the secret several summers ago by reading old Egyptian and Syrian manuscripts.

Legionnaires in Denver didn't breathe any of this to Miss Edith Adams when they asked her to join their show, because, after all, they don't like to admit it except in plenary session, with newspaper men excluded. But the rumor is that Miss Adams knew it anyway.

The particular thing about Miss Adams which her Legion friends are proud of is that she doesn't "slap." The foibles of the eastern debutante fail to interest them (for their audience) when they can find an amateur actress "as genuine as their own Colorado mountains."

USED THE GOLD BRICK CURE

"Treatment" Ended Many Cases of Flat Feet, Semi-Blindness and Other "Defects."

A gold brick which made the lame to walk and the blind to see is told of by Capt. P. H. McCarthy, Development Battalion No. 1, Fort Benjamin Harrison, Ind., who gets the credit for introducing the term "gold brick" into the army during the war. The unwillingness of certain recruits to submit to "development" brought the brick into play.

Innumerable cases of flat feet, semi-blindness, and other ailments were continually reported by reluctant soldiers at the camp. It was up to Captain McCarthy to discover whether these were ailments or alibis. When the medical profession failed, the brick got in its work. The soldier would be handed the gold article and told to go about as he pleased, free from drill, hikes, and of any kind, but he must carry the brick. When he saw an officer he must hold the brick out with the left hand and salute with the right.

The sick man was invariably back drilling with his outfit the second day. Flat feet and cold ones alike were cured.

Foch Sees Himself in "Movies"

Marshal Foch sat comfortably in Paris the other evening and saw films of his 10,000-mile tour through the United States. The "movie" was part of the entertainment which the Paris post of the American Legion had arranged for the marshal. Ambassador Myron T. Herrick said, in introducing Foch: "If it had been possible for Germany in 1914 to have seen a picture so truly representing the love between France and America, the war would never have been."

LEGION LIKED "MAC'S" NERVE

Veteran of the U. S. Navy Is Chosen as One of the Organization's National Heads.

John Alexander McCormack, vice commander of the American Legion, liked the looks of the navy as far back as 1904. He still thinks it is a good organization, although in recent years he has transferred his energies to the Navy Tuberculosis hospital at Fort Lyon, Colo. Mr. McCormack joined the navy with the landing party that went ashore from the Atlantic fleet.

Before 1917 had ended he had established a hospital at St. Angers, and Naval Base Hospital No. 1 at Brest. One of the things he does not mention about his career is the outbreak of a fire at Brest, during which he carried out several helpless patients and nearly ruined a couple of serviceable lungs. During the Marine offensive he was on an operating team at Jullly.

The Legion thought so much of his spirit and capabilities that they elected him one of their national heads.

WARM FRIEND OF THE LEGION

John Lambros of St. Paul Is Ever Ready to Feed the Hungry Ex-Service Man.

Whenever an ex-service man holding one hand on his stomach applies at the American Legion in St. Paul, Minn., the Legion asks: "Why don't you go to see John?"

"John" is John C. Lambros, a restaurateur whose hobby is satisfying the cravings of worthy ex-soldiers who are looking around for a job. At a recent celebration at the St. Paul armory he cooked a big contract and fed 600 men at cost, and it didn't cost very much at that.

Although Lambros was born in Soderocastion, Greece, nobody minds because nobody can pronounce it. And everybody agrees that he is more of an American than many citizens of native birth. He has been in this country for 13 years, during which time he has developed this great passion for seeing that people do not go hungry in St. Paul, and become a warm friend and helper to the American Legion.

"LITTLE CHILD" SHALL LEAD

National Commander MacNider Offers Clever Fling at Editorial Comment on His Youthfulness.

Being referred to as a "child" is all right if you know the trick of turning the phrase. The New York Times, in an editorial, referred to the youthfulness of Commander MacNider, commander of the American Legion. In the next speech MacNider made, he said:

"You remember the story of the shaly young second lieutenant who was suddenly called upon to take command of a hard-bodded company. As he stepped to the front, some private in the rear rank muttered: 'And a little child shall lead them.' The officer commanded the man who made the remark to step two paces forward—and the whole company stepped up."

Carrying On With the American Legion

A complete edition of a Berkeley, Cal., daily newspaper, will be prepared by the local post of the American Legion.

Allen soldiers and sailors are still taking out citizen's papers at the rate of about 700 a month, the department of labor reports.

Overlooking Kilauea's crater, ex-service men are enjoying a private health resort established by citizens of Hilo, Hawaii.

Arrested for vagrancy while attempting to find work, three ex-soldiers were released from jail in Tulsa, Okla., at the request of the American Legion.

Refusing citizenship to two foreign-born "conscientious objectors," a Toledo judge was commended by the Tony Wroblewski post of the Legion, composed entirely of foreign-born Americans.

Where centuries ago was reared the capitol of the Cherokee nation, will soon be built an American Legion clubhouse, at Tahlequah, Okla.

Men who served in the Coast Guard are entitled to hospitalization in public health service hospitals, according to a ruling given the American Legion.

The Seventh Regiment, N. Y. N. G., oldest unit of State militia in the United States, entertained several hundred wounded veterans with an evening of music.

GAVE HIS NAME TO CALENDAR

Of all the long list of popes, Gregory XIII has probably left the most lasting monument, for he framed the calendar we use today, and it still bears his name. Gregory completed his calendar in 1582.

In more modern times a pope of outstanding personality was Pius IX, who in 1846 broke the age-old tradition that the pope should never preach a sermon. It happened in this way. A famous preacher of the time, Padre Ventura, whose eloquence attracted great crowds, had arranged to preach at a church in Rome, but at the last moment he was taken ill and the disappointed people were about to disperse when suddenly the bells rang and it was announced that the sovereign pontiff had arrived in the church. The pope entered the pulpit and preached a sermon which the historian of the time has described as a "simple, good, plain sermon, easily intelligible to all." It was the first time a pope had preached for 300 years.

Eskimos Slaughter Musk Ox

The Eskimo hunts the musk ox with dogs from which they do not fear. On sighting a small band he lets one or two dogs loose when the other animals immediately race outward in a defensive formation with calves in the center, and prepared to take a blow as soon as the dogs are thus "anchored." The Eskimo lets all his dogs loose and then proceeds to kill the musk ox with gun or bow and arrow. The musk ox are very fierce, and if a wounded bull charges, the Eskimo, the dogs in turn immediately attack him, which gives the hunter a chance to shoot a second time. In this way the Eskimo is able to dispatch the whole herd.

Mohammed in Court

It was in a court of law, and a witness was being cross-examined. Said Counsel: "Why do you assert that the plaintiff is insane?" Witness: "Because he got about declaring he is the Prophet Mohammed." Counsel: "And do you consider that clear proof of his insanity?" Witness: "I do."

Counsel: "Why?" Witness: "Because," answered the witness, with a complacent smile, "I am the prophet—Mohammed, myself."—Lambert Scottman.

NERVOUS AND HALF-SICK WOMEN

These Letters Recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Will Interest You

For Your Own Good Please Read Them

Youngstown, Ohio.—"Last fall I began feeling run down and backache, and I could hardly do my little bit of housework. I was played out when I would just sweep one room and would have to rest. I would have to go to bed and when I would get up I would feel as if I had been run over. I had awful cramps every month and was just nearly all in. Finally my husband said to me one day, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine?' and I said, 'I am willing to take anything if I could get well again.' So I took one bottle and a second one and felt better and the neighbors asked me what I was doing, and said, 'Surely it must be doing you good all right.' I have just finished my eighth bottle and I can't express to you how I feel, the way I would like to. If you can use this letter you are welcome to it, and if any woman does not believe what I have written to be true, she can write to me and I will describe my condition to her as I have to you."—Mrs. ELMER HEASLEY, 141 S. Jackson St., Youngstown, Ohio.

"I was very nervous and run-down," writes Mrs. L. E. Wiese of 706 Louis St., New Orleans, La. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon 'Ailments Peculiar to Women' will be sent you free upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts.

Benefited by First Bottle "I was completely run down and not able to do my housework. I just dragged myself around and did not have energy to get up when once I sat down. I read advertisements of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in our paper 'The Indiana Daily Times' and learned all about it. I received results from the very first bottle and now I am doing all my own work, even washing and ironing, and I never felt better in my life. I tell all my friends it is due to you."—Mrs. ELIZABETH REYNOLDS, 403 N. Pine St., Indianapolis, Indiana.

You should pay heed to the experiences of these women. They know how they felt before taking the Vegetable Compound, and afterwards, too. Their words are true.

WABBLING ON THE BONUS.

There is a conspicuous lack of starch in the Congressional support of the soldiers' bonus. In fact the soldiers' bonus has become a sort of ghost that jumps out from dark corners on black nights and scares certain Congressmen out of their boots.
President Harding insists that the only way to "get the money" for the bonus is by reenacting the sales tax.
Congressmen have lived through the sales tax period and most of them seem to think that the country would have to be chloroformed to stand for it again.
The American Legion is pressing its campaign for the bonus, and Commander MacNider is insistent on speedy action. Congress is pretty well divided between those who believe in the bonus and want to pass it, and those who do not believe in it and want it killed. Class three is likewise numerous, and it consists of Congressmen whose districts are close and who are willing to do the "popular thing" on the soldiers' bonus, or any other "old thing" that will make them votes.
The President insists that if Congress passes the bonus bill that it must provide the money to pay for it.
So far, every proposal to raise this money has met with stern disapproval from the White House. Congress is like the man who mortgaged his house and land, his crops and machinery, his livestock and household furniture, and then was prevented from placing his wife and children in escrow. "That is the fix we are in," Congress is telling the ex-service men. To which the Legion replies: "You are talking bunk. If Congress wanted to have a billion to fight with, the money would be raised in a week. You can do the same thing in this bonus matter." Strange differences of opinion like this are not unusual in Washington.

ALL WORN OUT.
Does morning find you with a lame stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden?
Have you suspected your kidneys?
Grayling people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor.
Harry Ward, Grayling, says:
"Mornings my back was in bad shape.
It was lame and sore and many times catches pains jerked me back.
Work which required stooping came hard for me; every time I went to straighten sharp pains darted over my back. I was restless during the night and couldn't get much sleep.
Black specks floated before my eyes and brought on headaches. My kidneys were so weak I had to get up often at night and the secretions were painful and highly colored. I was in a nervous condition, in fact, I was all worn out when a friend advised me to use Doan's Kidney Pills.
I purchased a few boxes at Lewis'
Drug Store and they cured me up in great shape."

SCHOOL TEAMS WIN
FROM WEST BRANCH
CLOSE SEASON AT HOME WITH TWO VICTORIES.
Those who attended the basket ball games between the boys and girls high school teams of Grayling and similar teams from West Branch were given a real treat Wednesday night.
Both games were fast and exciting, altho the scores were very much one-sided. Both Grayling teams lost at West Branch a couple of weeks ago, and the visitors came here confident of victory. There was a good crowd of West Branch that accompanied their team to Grayling, only to see their favorites given decisive defeat.

Girls Game.
The line-up on the Grayling team was as follows: Ruth Taylor and Alvin Larson, forwards; Kristine Sal-ling and Lucille Colten, centers; Vella
Hermann and Beulah Colten, guards.
The teams seemed well matched in appearance but the training and coaching of the Grayling girls soon told in the game and they were easy victors.
Score, 1st half—Grayling 10; West Branch 8. Final, Grayling 22; West Branch 11. Referee—Fred Alexander.

Boys Game.
West Branch started the scoring in the first half with field basket. That was the last point they made in that frame, while Grayling piled up a total of 20 points. In the second half Grayling continued scoring, finishing the game with 48 points, and holding their opponents to a final score of 6 points.
A number of times West Branch got the ball and worked some clever passing, but the fast floor work of Grayling succeeded in breaking up their plays and sending the ball back into Grayling territory. The wonderful work of "Midget" Brown was one of the features of the boys game. He was in the game every minute and seldom fumbled the ball, and had some excellent shots to his credit. Smith was exceptionally fast in his plays.
Every fellow on the team played a remarkable game and their team work was great. While the visitors had a fine-looking team it plainly showed that they lacked coaching. The success of our team is due in a large measure to the excellent coaching of Mr. Morrow.
The line-up on the Grayling boys
team was as follows: Brown, center;
Morrow and Taylor, guards; Matson substitute in part of the last half for Landsberg. Referee—Chamberlain.

Last week our school teams played at Osceola and Tawas City. The boys won both games but the girls lost both games.

Mrs. Eno Milnes of Lewiston visited at the home of Mrs. O. Milnes a part of last week.

Benjamin Delameter was seriously injured Wednesday while riding on the side of a freight car, and struck a switch. His body was badly bruised and mangled and it was feared that his breast had been crushed. He is in a serious condition at Mercy hospital.

Fire was discovered under the stairway in the Frank Karnes home during last night and caused some damage to the building and some clothing that was hung under the stairs. The fire was discovered by a passer-by and with his assistance the family was able to keep down the flames until the fire department arrived, at which time it was nearly out. The loss has not been estimated.

The American Legion basketball team of Cheboygan are trying to get a game with Grayling to be played on the Cheboygan floor Saturday night. Pulaski Post of Detroit with whom is Arthur Karpus, a former Grayling High basketball star, were to play at Cheboygan tomorrow night, but owing to the series being played in Detroit cancelled their game with Cheboygan.

Mr. and Mrs. David Kneht and little son arrived home last week from a fall and winter automobile trip in the Pacific and the western states and some of the southern states. They report a wonderful vacation. Almost every night they were away they slept under tents or in their auto, and lived in camp style wherever they went. On their return trip they encountered bad weather in Tennessee and there sold their Ford and came home by rail. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kneht are enthusiastic over their trip and have many interesting things to tell about it.

The "Detroiters" basketball team has booked a game with the Grayling Independents to be played here March 26. There is little doubt about the Detroiters being the strongest team in Central America. They have defeated the Kelly Greens, and that team has defeated the Pulaski Post team. They are coming to Grayling under the guarantee of $175. The members of this team put in full time during the season playing basketball. They are the best players their managers can pick up anywhere. We believe our Independents will be able to give them a good battle, but cannot be expected to win. If the weather is favorable no doubt this game will draw attendance from the surrounding towns as well as Grayling. Basket ball fans here are looking forward to the game.

ALLARD, EYE SPECIALIST HERE MARCH 28.

I have recovered from the fire which destroyed my office and equipment in the Cheboygan fire, and will be in Grayling at Shoppensons Inn, Tuesday March 28, one day only, with a complete new and up to date equipment. Let me examine your eyes under my drugless method and prove what correct glasses will do for your case. All work guaranteed. Positively no glasses prescribed unless needed. Remember the date Tuesday March 28. A. S. Allard. 2-14-4.

The Johannesburg train, reached that city Tuesday for the first time in a month. During that time the inhabitants of that town has had to get along without train service, and only such first class mail as could be sent by sleighs from Grayling. Business was absolutely killed, as no lumber could be shipped. The lumber camps continued their operations and report a fine season for such work, also the lumber mill kept in operation. But outside communication except by phone was almost none. The necessary comforts, thanks to the Company general store, were in abundance, so that nobody suffered. However, the isolation is reported to have been very distressing and vexing. One thing, some say, is that they cannot understand why the Railroad company had not sent a train into that town, for a week before the big storms blockaded the roads.

FREDERIC NEWS.

Mrs. Wm. Terhune is very poorly at this writing.

Choir practice was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson last Saturday evening. Meets at Mr. and Mrs. Eli Forbush's next Saturday evening.

DID YOU MAIL YOURS?

Practically every family in the county has recently received an envelope containing five copies of a little sheet advertising Crawford County, also a little slip requesting that loyal citizens and well-wishers of the county enclose one of the Crawford County circulars in each letter written to friends outside the county, particularly in other states and distant parts of the state.

If each will do his part in this little service, results of no small value may follow.

"I'm afraid I've been a pretty sorry disappointment to you, I muttered. "I have to money, but I don't know enough to be any good at the taking game. And that, perhaps, was my fault. After you'd got a better money man to go, I'm thinking, 'What had I done?"

"You go straight to hell," I said.

The answer is found in that same document, I note. Fifty thousand dollars, the report would say, for the purpose of building a tunnel also "Did you ever hear of such a thing as a bear with a sore head?" she

"I don't know how to do that," she said.

"It is perfectly right and proper," said the young man, "in the circumstances. Just the same, you'll have to tell me that the young man is really very rich, and a very rich man, and a very rich man."

"You didn't want me to marry money, and have good clothes and all the other things, and travel and see the world, and all that?"

"No, no, no! I want you to marry me."

"Her laugh was just a funny little laugh."

"Remember!" she said, just then.

"What? And you haven't even kissed Miss Randle yet!" Thank you, ever so much; but I don't want to be one of several. Besides, you haven't any money."

"Thank you, ever so much, and I haven't any money."

"What could a rich man say, I mean to say, to such a girl as that?"

"Did you come over here just to

"You've heard me say that perhaps I had a cat," he said, out of the corner of his mouth; "well, the cat's coming." Skip out of that cedar door, sliding, and hit for the timber. I switched up with you in a little second. I don't know exactly what he was doing at that point. I got clear of the main buildings and was climbing the ships of the fronton above. The Indians back and saw Bullerton start tearing across the deepened bed. He was probably lost to another little bit of saying, rather than of else he might want Budd and me to get together by ourselves.

Under cover of the forest I sat down and waited, and in a short time Budd joined me, making an excuse for his absence, saying that didn't mean anything at all.

But he didn't ever wonder in his delighted wish—the one bit I was working when your grand paw came along," he said. "Though maybe you'd like to hog over with me and take a look at her."

Of course, I said I'd be delighted, so we made a detour around the Chinaman, keeping out of sight, from the stable and shaft-house, and pushing around the western ship for maybe half a mile until we came to the gulch to drive a long-drainage tunnel through the boxer slope."

"The old man rambled along in philosophical science for a few minutes, then he said:

"Read that there tunnel job, son o' a biker! Two hundred thousand—two hundred thousand!—with which I didn't see, Standee?"

"That was the figure?"

"And what o' Charley Bailey was willing to give you fifty thousand for your diggers—though now you say you saved it down to fifty. That means an investment of at least a hundred and fifty thousand; all accounted and techin' accordin' in. Let's see where that's fetchin' us to, I do know what your grandpaw paid for to mine, but it was less'n half a million, and I reckon he paid over a dollar worth worth, don't you?"

"Umbrless he did," I admitted.

"So, there's where we stand, he was on speedily." "Two hundred a fifty thousand tacked onto half a million gives her a capital of three quarters of a million stick in her, first of all. Question is: Is she worth it?"

"I was beginning to get his idea last. He was wondering if a million that had gone solid at a top price of half a million could stand the investment of a quarter of a

"That may be," I protested. "But if you told me the story straight that night in the Pullman, you can't turn a wheel until I tell you to go ahead. So your contract, if you've got one, doesn't amount to a hill of beans."

"That point may make a new little question for the courts to decide," he snapped. "But I don't want to go to law about this thing, and neither do you. As a matter of fact, you haven't any money to throw away in a legal scrap. You make me a deed to fifty-one per cent of the Catalina property, just as it stands, and then you may go back East and enjoy yourself playing machines, or pitch and toss, or red dog—whatever your pet diversion may happen to be. Fifty-one per cent and yet give me a clear field—not stick around, I mean. That goes as it lies."

"Fuh!" I scolded. "A white back yet were talking about pulling the law on me. You can't make anything like that stand in the courts and you know it mighty well."

"Maybe not; but I can make it stand

"All right?" To rejoined, hesitatingly: "well, that—that phase of it is a hard matter and goes on to something else. I'll buy your mine just as it stands, water and all—and that's what nobody else would do, you'd better believe."

"For how much?"

"For fifty thousand dollars, cash."

"No," I granted. "I don't need a little money that badly."

"Fifty thousand isn't a little; it will give you an income of three thousand a year. And that's better than you're getting now out of what your father left you."

"You seem to know a good deal about my private affairs," I growled.

"You said a beautiful, thin, I've made it my business to find out about them. There's nothing much to you, Frankston, when you come right down to brass tacks. You had a good education, but you haven't had get-up and get enough in you to make any use of it."

"The less you dig in my private garden, the better the better we shall get along," I told him.

He was silent for a moment. He had picked up a bit of iron rod and was tracing hieroglyphic figures with it in the dust of the shop floor. Presently he looked up with a sort of mocking leer.

"Woof!" she shivered, "here comes the bear again!" and then, right smack out of a clear sky: "Kiss me—just once, Stانبear!"

Did I? She was gasping a bit when she got up rather unsteadily to go back to the cabin across the dumb lead and wouldn't stay another minute, though I begged and pleaded with her.

"No, indeed, 'Bluebear' man," she said with that never little garble of laugh, "I think I have found out what I wanted to. Goodby." And then, after I thought she was clearing, she hurried back to say, abruptly, "Oh, yes, I had almost forgotten what I came over here to tell you. You mustn't tell the Chugcher, Stانبear, for any price that anybody might offer you. Goodby, again."

Can you beat it? When the good hard-made woman He doubtless had many patterns; but I do believe the mold was broken and thrown away after this female girl had been fashioned. For a solid hour or more I sat on that slat bench at the shafthouse door in a sort of bewildered daze, wondering if I had been asleep and dreaming, or if the bedazzling thing had really happened.

At breakfast the next morning every

- Working entirely alone, Daddy had driven a tunnel possibly a hundred feet deep straight into the solid rock of the mountain side, following the thin vein and hoping that it would widen into a "pay-streak." After he had led a few yards into the tunnel, he waded to a seat on a pile of broken rock and took one himself with his back against the opposite wall.

"I'm gettin' just naturally so I hate a 'gosh-damned crowd,'" he remarked, switching suddenly from his talk of abandoned rights to "feet sometimes."

"Oh, hold on!" he protested, with mock concern. Then he showed me plainly what had been doing in the interval between his first and this second appearance in the Red Desert region. "I've had time to look you up, you know. You're engaged to a rich boy. East and you can't marry he because you haven't money enough. That remark of his startled things over the edge for me.

people say I do when I'm beginning provoking that your grandfather should have left things in such a dreadful muddle."

"How much do you know about the muddle?" I asked.

"I know that old Mr. Dudley let, or partly let, a contract for the draining of the mine, to a man who was almost a total stranger to him."

I saw how it was. Bullerton, always ready to talk than a stuck pig is to bleed, had been giving her his own version of things. But I let that pass of it go.

announced as chipper as an English street sweepings. "Say, Broughton, can you afford to let your capital has been found no definite relationship between any single peculiarity of the shape of the head and any trait of character. Henry Foster Adams writes in Scribner's:

For many years an Italian criminologist, Lombroso, made a study of criminal structural peculiarities and their relationship to crime. He found very marked tendencies for criminals to possess certain stigmata or signs. Unfortunately the signs of the criminals were found to be widely prevalent among those whose names had never been upon police blotters. It was a pet scheme to have all individuals who were marked by a peculiar sign watched by his detectives, thus preventing crime instead of merely punishing it after it had been committed. It was entirely impracticable, for a characteristic sign of a murderer was found in altogether too many tendencies for individuals to make a pet scheme at all feasible.

COSTS.

Costs Money to Keep Mines Dry.

One of the big expenses of a coal mine is the continual pumping of water to keep it dry. In the average anthracite mine, 18 tons of water are hoisted from the mine for every ton of coal mined, and in some mines runs up to 27 tons.

The bank wrecker may be big, but the bank usually sinks.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY

Nothing So Good for a Cough or Cold. "Everyone who has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy speaks well of it," writes Edward P. Miller, Abbottstown, Pa. People who once use this preparation are seldom satisfied with any other. It is excellent to allay a cough or break up a cold.

EXCELLENT REMEDY FOR CONSTIPATION

It would be hard to find a better remedy for constipation than Chamberlain's Tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. Give them a trial when you have need.

INCOME TAX FACTS

To avoid penalty, income-tax returns must be in the hands of collectors of internal revenue on or before midnight, March 15, 1922. Every taxpayer must be accompanied by a payment of at least one-fourth of the total tax due. Extensions of time for filing returns are allowed only in exceptional cases, illness, absence, etc. Applications for extensions under these circumstances should be addressed to the collector of internal revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives. No extension beyond thirty days can be granted by a collector. Requests for further extensions must be addressed to the commissioner of Internal Revenue, Washington, D. C. For failure to make a return on time the penalty is a fine of not more than $1,000, plus 25 per cent of the tax due. For failure to pay tax when due or for understatement of the tax, the penalty is a fine of 5 per cent of the tax, plus interest at 1 per cent a month until paid. For making a false or fraudulent return the penalty is a fine of not more than $10,000 or not exceeding one year's imprisonment or both, together with the cost of prosecution and an additional assessment of 50 per cent of the amount of tax paid.

THE PNEUMONIA MONTH

March is typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.

Soy Beans. Are going with a rush. I had to write and tell the people down here that I would take in and sell for them all of which I am doing, not at all in the sense of a dealer, but, in an educational sense, to get farmers started with this valuable legume which makes splendid hay the same year seed is planted.

Please read the bulletin about soy beans, that I mailed each of you. Glad to have you call at the office and see photographs of soy beans raised in this county last year.

Keep right on trying to get meadows of clover and alfalfa; but, while these are growing, plant lots of soy beans for this year's use.

Soy beans test fully as high in protein as alfalfa. Protein is one of the chief food elements in making milk. Cows, to do their best, must have it. It is impossible for a cow to make up for a lack of protein feed through extra large amounts of feeds that do not contain much protein, like marsh hay, corn stalks, timothy, wheat, oat hay, buckwheat straw.

Your Grass Seed. The man who puts off buying his clover seed is headed for trouble. There is just about one quarter as much good clover seed in Michigan as the state uses.

It is none of my business where you buy your seed. As your county agent who has at heart the interests of every farmer, I earnestly urge you to buy at home. Don't look for cheap seed you cannot get something for nothing.

You should have heard what the Professor of Farm Crops at our Agricultural College said, when I was down there last month, about firms selling inferior clover seed. He called some of them by name, too. Don't ever buy any seed of anyone at any price, if the tag on the bag does not show the purity, percentage of germination, percentage of weed seeds, and if the seller does not tell where the seed was grown.

Makes a Big Difference

Where seed was grown makes a very big difference to us in this county of severe winters. If you would give me Utah alfalfa or Turkish alfalfa, I would not waste my time or my land on it. We need a certified Grimm alfalfa that lived through the severe winters of North Dakota and Idaho.

Wouldn't Take As Gift

I wouldn't take as a gift the real good seed grown in France and sometimes spoken of as Mediterranean seed. Such seed is a genuine real clover, all right; but, it grew in countries far warmer than Crawford County. The Agricultural Colleges of both Virginia and Indiana tried it out, and both pronounced it unfit for even those states which are far south of us.

The yearly 14 million pounds of the stuff was imported last spring and mixed with regular clover seed. With us, it starts to grow all right and the farmer who bought it says: "This seed is all right. I guess I know where to buy," the latter with a wise and knowing look.

The spring isn't there. I winter killed. The Professor of Farm Crops said that everyone but 7 per cent of the seed houses had broken their promise not to import such seed.

The State Farm Bureau Seed department never talks about how cheap it can sell seed. It tells where every drop of its seed grew, and guarantees its purity and germination.

How many others have been doing so? Spring Just Round the Corner. Though there is lots of snow yet we know that Spring is not far away. There is none too much time to make preparations for her coming.

What Shall We Do? Let's order the wire fencing, seed harness, tools, everything we need and be ready.

Test the seed corn in the testing box. Test, don't guess. The field is a poor place to test seed corn. Engage the seed oats. There were not many oats in this county last year really fit for seed.

No one but a poor stick will put off repairs of plows, drags, harness, etc., until he must waste a nice spring day from work to get it fixed.

Yes, Let's Have Some Beauty, Too. Why not plan a larger, better garden than ever, fenced to keep stock and chickens out, long rows to be cultivated with a horse?

A good garden is the most valuable acre of the farm. Flowers! Well chosen, well placed, who does not love them? Brother, let's spend a few cents for a few flower seeds of kinds our wives or daughters have expressed a preference for, or we have admired elsewhere.

Let's take the time to help fertilize and prepare the ground for them and to protect them from stock. The little time, the pitifully little time needed, we will never miss if we are good planners.

No, brother, excuse me, you can't make me believe that it's, fanning with flowers a few evenings that puts you behind with your work. Something else put you behind; but, we won't talk about that now.

Neighbors will like the looks of the place better for some bright, well placed flowers. Put them along the walks and drives; around foundations; along fences; in corners. Having started them, give them the care to make them grow.

People passing will admire your place. You will think more of the place. Wife and children will think more of the farm home.

Let's rake the front yard, and the back yard, and the barn yard. Now, don't stink, or say anything cutting-prone the arduous and burn the brush.

Let's clean up the fence rows along the road. It doesn't look very good to see the old posts, from repairing the fence, left lying along the road year after year.

I admire the gumption of some young people for quitting and leaving the farm home where the father is and his beer, the child has no share in any crop or stock, and things are kept looking so disgusting. Let's get out of living in what Horatio's Dairyman calls "An atmosphere of moisture and overalls." Let's pep up. Let's look up. Let's clean up.

Let's step up, and take the place in the county as a well-kept farm home entitles us to.

U. S. TREASURY LAUNCHES SAFE INVESTMENT CAMPAIGN

William B. Rosworth, Government Savings Director for the Seventh Federal Reserve District, announced today the opening of a campaign to plot out the financial swindlers located in the five states of his district—Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin. During the month of March 50,000 city and rural mail carriers will take the following message to their sixteen million patrons: "CONSULT YOUR BANKER OF POSTMASTER BEFORE YOU INVEST."

Sixteen million dollars worth of the Government's new Treasury Savings Certificates have been distributed among the five thousand post offices in the district and each postmaster is responsible for the campaign in his community. Money invested in the new certificates increases twenty-five per cent in five years and will be returned to the investor at any time within the five years upon demand to the Treasury. Registration insures the investor against any loss. Postmasters are authorized to receive investments as small as $20 and as large as $4,000 from any individual.

THE WORLD SHRINKING

Not Physically, but Through Modern Means of Communication.

The far places of a generation ago have become the neighboring areas of today. Distance in thousands or hundreds of miles has given way to hours of time. The "prairie schooner," the pony express and sailing vessel have succumbed to the magnificent transcontinental limited, the wireless telegraph and telephone and the palatial ocean liner and airplane. These modern modes of travel and methods of communication have brought the far places near and increased interest in peoples, countries and living conditions which but a few years ago occupied the imagination as almost of another world.

With the facility of communication between all parts of the world, there has come a growing demand for information concerning the out-of-the-way places and the changing face of the world, the habits of peoples, the progress of the world, the progress of the world, the progress of the world.

People passing will admire your place. You will think more of the place. Wife and children will think more of the farm home. Let's rake the front yard, and the back yard, and the barn yard. Now, don't stink, or say anything cutting-prone the arduous and burn the brush.

Chamberlain's Tablets have a remarkable effect in the treatment of the ear, when this tube is inflamed, you have a running sound in the ear, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Chamberlain's Tablets can be used and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be restored forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is inflammation of the mucous membrane of the ear. Chamberlain's Tablets act on the mucous membrane of the ear, and cure it.
